Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize the Cardozo Society in St. Louis County, a philanthropic group made up of Jewish attorneys, judges, and law students who live or work in the St. Louis area; and

Whereas, launched by the Jewish Federation of St. Louis, the Cardozo Society was established to strengthen relationships among people in the legal profession through education and leadership, while at the same time working to enhance the quality of life for Jewish people; and

Whereas, the Society's philanthropic role will be to participate in Jewish Federation's fundraising efforts, and to support twenty-six local, twenty national, and three international human service agencies, programs, and services; and

Whereas, the Cardozo Society is modeled after the Jewish Federation's Maimonides Society, which is made up of Jewish doctors; and

Whereas, the Cardozo Society was named in honor of former United States Supreme Court Justice Benjamin Cardozo, who was the second Jewish man to serve as justice on that Court:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations and best wishes to the members and leaders of the Cardozo Society at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and
